

Hello everybody,

Due the situation of the coronavirus and the latest news, the guests and organization of BloodyNightCon Europe talked during days about the possibility to postpone the event. Thinking in the necessity to give time to the attendants to manage flights and hotel and also taking in count the real health risk for fans, guests and staff to attend an event were hugs and big emotions are everywhere, KLZ Events and managers arrived to a mutual agreement. As it's the intention of all the parties to make the best event possible, we decided to move BloodyNightCon Europe to the weekend of September 19th and 20th, 2020 with an extra surprise.

New dates: September 19th and 20th, 2020 (the event will be together with OneHundredCon).

Why those dates? Events will be fusionated so all people will be able to enjoy all guests, buying their activities and extras, etc... Even if your pass is not for the other event.

Also we know there are so many people who have pass for BloodyNightCon and also for OneHundredCon and we want to make this process as easy as possible. If this is your case, you will receive a voucher for the cheapest pass and will be able to exchange for any products in the event itself including extras and merchandise.

How will work? The passes of both events will be fusionated and will have a same price, including the same extras, conditions and activities. Anyway, they will be still available in both shops. In the event, numbers of passes bought for BloodyNightCon Europe will be end with an A and numbers of passes bought for OneHundredCon will be end with a B.

Buying a pass with autographs included, you will have an autograph of ALL regular guests of both guestlists. About the included photo, you will be able to choose one of the regular guests between both guestlists. When we call a photo or autograph session of BloodyNightCon Europe guest, will have preference the passes of that event and viceversa.

Finally, we will have two different group sessions. You can use your group photo op with the guestlist of OneHundredCon or with the guestlist for BloodyNightCon Europe.

About the seats in the Q&A room, passes will be mixed and by pass number: FIRST ZONE for Exclusive and Rise passes, SECOND ZONE for Salvatore passes and THIRD ZONE for Normal and Fall passes.

Venue: Event will take place in the same venue, The Egg Brussels. Please, understand we cannot do anything with your own reservations of hotel or flights.

Guests, tickets and extras: Guests will be the same, PAUL WESLEY, STEVEN R. MCQUEEN, ZACH ROERIG, RILEY VOELKEL and QUINCY FOUSE plus the guests from OneHundredCon already confirmed (LINDSEY MORGAN, RICHARD HARMON, RHIANNON FISH, SACHIN SAHEL and JAROD JOSEPH). All passes will be valid for the new dates and also extras.

Compensation: Due the problems this situation might cause to you, from KLZ Events we want to compensate everybody who will come to the new dates with a 10% discount voucher you can use during the event dates only. We will give you the voucher in your hand after the registration.

Also, if you cannot come to the event at the end, you will be able to sell your ticket or give it to other person. Just send an email when you sell it with the informations (complete name, location and email) of the new owner.

Tickets for BloodyNightCon Europe will be valid for OneHundredCon and vice versa. If you have tickets for both events, we can make a voucher for the cheap pass or you can ask for the refund of this pass after the new events dates.

Special purposes:

Due the circumstances, we are trying to confirm a new guest from The 100 and another guest from The Vampire Diaries, Legacies or The Originals. The final number of guests for the entire weekend can arrive to twelve.

In any case, this is the last edition of BloodyNightCon Europe.

Thanks everybody for your support and understanding in these difficult moments.
